ABOUT THE FUND

Goldman Sachs Obligacji Rynków Wschodzących (Waluta Lokalna) invests up to 100% of the fund's assets in the underlying foreign fund Goldman Sachs Emerging Markets Debt (Local Bond). The underlying fund's assets may be invested in bonds and other debt instruments that provide an exposure to interest rate and/or currency risks of emerging markets. The fund promotes environmental or social characteristics, as described in Article 8 of the SFDR regulation.

HOW WE MANAGE

- The assets of the underlying fund may be invested in bonds issued, denominated or characterised by exposure to the currencies of emerging countries in Latin America, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa,
- up to one third of the underlying fund's portfolio may be invested in debt instruments issued by other countries, denominated in currencies such as euro or dollar,
- the underlying fund is actively managed and its benchmark is the J. P. Morgan Government Bond-Emerging Market (GBI-EM) Global Diversified index. The underlying fund's objective is not to mirror this benchmark. The underlying fund's investments may materially deviate from the benchmark,
- under the terms of the prospectus, we may also invest in other financial instruments, including derivatives.

FOR WHOM

This fund is for those who:

- want to invest for no less than 4-year period,
- expect returns higher than bank deposits,
- accept a medium-low risk class of the fund.

Worth to know: you can read more about Goldman Sachs Obligacji Rynków Wschodzących (Waluta Lokalna) in the prospectus, key information document and disclosures related to sustainability issues. We publish all mentioned documents at www.gstfi.pl.

INVESTMENT RISK

The risk profile is determined based on the methodology used in the Key Information Document (KID) and is current as at the date of this Factsheet. Historical data used to assign the risk category cannot predict the future risk profile of the fund. The fund objective does not include achieving the relevant risk category. The risk and return profile may change in the future. The lowest risk category [1] does not mean risk-free investment.

GLOSSARY

FUND

"Fund" is a common term used to describe various forms of collective investment, including "sub-funds", which are part of our umbrella funds.

PARTICIPATION UNIT

The fund "issues" participation units to investors. They confirm the right to a certain part of the fund's assets and the exercise of other rights arising from participation in the fund. The value of a unit is determined by dividing the value of the fund's assets by the number of units held by all participants.

SFDR CLASSIFICATION

SFDR is Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector. SFDR includes a system of classifying investment products into one of three categories depending on the approach to sustainability issues. In Goldman Sachs TFI, products classified in accordance with Article 6 integrate sustainability risks into the investment process, products complying with Article 8 promote environmental and social aspects, and products classified in accordance with Article 9 have as their objective sustainable investments.

MANAGEMENT FEES

A fixed management fee is the basic remuneration charged by an asset manager for managing a fund. It is set as a percentage charged on the assets of the fund under management on an annual basis. Some companies may also charge a variable fee if the conditions are met in the form of the manager achieving a certain level of performance measured in relation to a specific reference point (e.g. benchmark).

BENCHMARK

A reference index that helps evaluating fund management performance. The following may serve as a benchmark: stock market index, yield of specific treasury instruments or their combinations.

PARTICIPATION UNIT CATEGORY

The participation units of our funds may be available in different categories. They differ in the method and size of fees charged. The basic one is category "A", but there are also those that are sold under employee programs or individual pension accounts.

RATING OF ANALYZY ONLINE

A comprehensive assessment of the fund by an independent analytical firm. The assessment consists of both quantitative parameters (e.g. effectiveness of the fund, repeatability of results, maximum capital drawdown) and qualitative parameters (e.g. the company's market position, transparency or human capital). The result of this analysis are stars (from one to five). The more of them there are, the better the quality of the fund.

DISTRIBUTION FEE

This fee is the distributor's remuneration for intermediation in the sale of shares. It is set as a percentage charged on the amount deposited by investors. The amount of the distribution fee varies from distributor to distributor and usually decreases as the amount of capital paid into the fund increases.

All Goldman Sachs SFIO Sub-Funds net asset value may be subject to high volatility because the sub-funds assets are invested in shares of open-end investment funds or in shares of foreign funds that invest in equity or debt securities of higher risk. Goldman Sachs SFIO Sub-Funds invest all their assets in shares of foreign funds managed by an entity of the Goldman Sachs TFI group, and in shares of open-end investment funds managed by Goldman Sachs TFI.

As part of our investment process, we may integrate ESG factors alongside traditional factors. The identification of a risk related to an ESG factor will not necessarily exclude a particular investment that, in our view, is otherwise suitable and attractively priced for investment, and we may invest in an issuer without integrating ESG factors or considerations into our investment process. Moreover, ESG information, whether from an external and/or internal source, is, by nature and in many instances based on a qualitative and subjective assessment. An element of subjectivity and discretion is therefore inherent to the interpretation and use of ESG data. The relevance and weightings of specific ESG factors to or within the investment process vary across asset classes, sectors and strategies and no one factor or consideration is determinative. Goldman Sachs Asset Management in its sole discretion and without notice may periodically update or change the process for conducting its ESG assessments and implementation of its ESG views in portfolios, including the format and content of such analysis and the tools and/or data used to perform such analysis. Accordingly, the type of assessments depicted here may not be performed for every portfolio holding. The process for conducting ESG assessments and implementation of ESG views in portfolios, including the format and content of such analysis and the tools and/or data used to perform such analysis, may also vary among portfolio management teams.
